

Chesapeake Cats & Dogs, Inc.

Working to provide a life of love and dignity for all animals

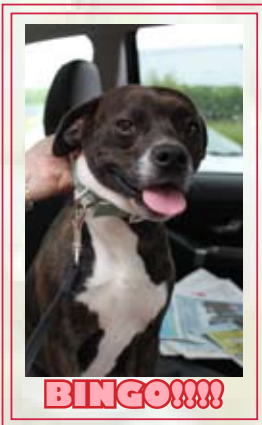

May 2011

The past month showered us with kittens—and puppies, too!
Here are a just a few, too cute for words.

April and her babies, soon after birth and at 2 weeks.

Lucy! . . . and her crew.

And Little Orphan Pansy!

Summer Is Coming!

Chesapeake Cats and Dogs has been busy this spring, and will get even busier as summer begins. We have helped two litters of kittens and some individual orphans so far and, thanks to the willingness of fosters, we've been able to save several dogs, including some cute lab puppies! If you know anyone looking to adopt, please send them to us.

Wish List

Our current needs include fumeless paint; we need to freshen up after 4 years and more than 1,000 animals! Who's interested in helping to paint?

We also have ongoing need for cat litter, paper towels and sponges, bleach, dishwasher liquid, and new beds for the cats in the center. We are grateful for all donations!

APRIL 9 was Emily Gray's birthday. She wanted to share her birthday with CCAD and our kitties and asked all who were coming to her party to donate to CCAD. Emily collected $300 instead of gifts, and she and her mom brought that to the Center, where she spent time loving each of our cats and kittens.

The Gray family adopted Sweet Pea in February. At Stroll for Strays, Emily told us that "if Sweet Pea got any happier, she would burst."

Thank you, Emily, and Happy Birthday!

Ways To Help Rescue a Dog Without Adopting or Fostering, Part 2

Can you...

35. Conduct a home visit or accompany a rescue person?
36. Help a rescue person at the vet if there is more than one dog?
37. Have a yard sale and donate the money to rescue?
38. Be volunteer to do rescue in your area?
39. Take advantage of a promotion offering a free ID tag; have it inscribed with your club's name & phone #?
40. Talk to friends about adopting/fostering rescue dogs?
41. Donate vet services? A spay/neuter? Vaccinations?
42. Interview vets about offering discounts to rescues?
43. Write a column for a local newspaper or newsletter on dogs looking for homes or ways to help rescue?
44. Take photos of adoptable dogs for use by the club?
45. Maintain Web sites listing/showing dogs available?
46. Help organize and run fundraising events?
47. Help maintain paperwork associated with each dog or enter the information into a data base?
48. Microchip a rescued dog?
49. Lend your carpet steamcleaner to someone who has fostered a dog that was sick or marked in the house?
50. Donate a bottle of bleach or other cleaning products?
51. Donate/lend a portable dog run to quarantine a dog with unknown vaccination history and has been in a shelter?
52. Drive a foster's children to an activity so that the foster can take the dog to obedience class?
53. Use your video camera to film a rescue dog in action?
54. Pay the cost of taking a dog to obedience class?
55. Be the one to take the dog to its obedience class?
56. Go to the foster home once a week with your children and dogs to help socialize the dog?
57. Help the foster clean up the yard (yes, we also have to scoop what those foster dogs poop)?
58. Offer to test the foster dog with cats?
59. Pay for the dog to be groomed or take the dog to a do-it-yourself grooming place?
60. Bring the foster take-out dinner?
61. Pay a house-cleaning service to do spring cleaning for someone who fosters dogs all the time?
62. Lend your artistic talents to your club's newsletter, fundraising ideas, t-shirt designs?
63. Donate printer paper, envelopes, stamps to your club?

BINGO!!

THANK YOU to our loyal supporters who attended our Spring Bag/Basket Bingo and Chinese Auction. We had about 75 bingo players; a great time was had by all! Our bingo caller, Dennis, kindly donated his time to us. In addition to the Raffle Table and Chinese Auction, we had a 50/50, won by Jay and Kathy Thomas, who donated that money back to CCAD. The proceeds will help with veterinary costs for puppies and kittens in need this spring.

Our New Volunteer Coordinator!

LILLIAN ACOSTA, a long-time cat- and dog-lover, started with CCAD by donating the occasional check or bag of Kitty litter. She began volunteering at the center in September 2010 to be around the kitties. Originally from Illinois, she moved to Maryland in 1990, and to Kent Island in 1994. Lillian works as a Government contractor for the US Marine Corps HQ. She lives in Kent Island Estates with her significant other and, due to his allergies, is (temporarily) petless.

Lillian will be kept busy as CCAD grows by organizing volunteers, ensuring that we have coverage at all events, and helping to ensure that volunteer shifts at our adoption center are covered as needed. Welcome aboard!
