Working to provide a life of love and dignity for all animals

August 2011

COME ONE! COME ALL! TO CCAD'S VARIETY BENEFIT SHOW!

MARK YOUR CALENDAR NOW to attend the Variety Show fundraiser on August 18. The fun begins at 5:00 PM at the Kent Island American Legion on Rte. 8 South, with award-winning DJ Steve Moody.

There will be food to purchase for your dinner made by our top chef, Debbie Vogelsang. Visit the Bake Sale table for a dessert treat, including slices of Smith Island Cake.

Take your time browsing the Silent Auction items. Bring your checkbooks because it will be hard to resist these outstanding Auction. For example, Roger Guest is donating an airplane ride over the Eastern Shore in his private plane, Bev's Grooming is providing a unique Pet Basket, L & L Liquors is donating a basket of their goods, and Maggie Schmidt has handcrafted two Angel Pins.

There will be a Dewey Basket (Dewey is the famous library cat from Iowa), assembled by Rose Rowdon, who is also donating a Cooking Basket. Bid on Sheila Wentzel's scent-filled Bath Basket. There are many more exciting Silent Auction items you will want to bid on.

So, bring your family and invite your neighbors. Then sit back to enjoy the entertaining Variety Show produced by Maxine Wixom. The acts include marvelous Swing Dancers from Baltimore; Butch Boswell, who sings and plays his guitar with Sheba his beautiful rescue dog at his side; more dancers; and a variety of singing styles.

What an evening of food, fellowship with friends of Chesapeake Cats & Dogs and entertainment!! All this for $15 a ticket plus the cost of food, baked items, Silent Auction buys, and 50/50. We are providing this enjoyable evening to benefit the cats and dogs.

Looking forward to seeing you on August 18th.—Phyllis Lee

CCAD is bursting at the seams with cuteness—won't you please take us home?

Canines and Cocktails for a Cause

HERE'S ANOTHER really fun event. Paws Pet Boutique and Loews Hotel in Annapolis sponsor Canines and Cocktails for a Cause the last Friday of the month April-September. Michelle (owner of Paws Pet Boutique) has very kindly chosen CCAD to be the recipient of the proceeds for the August 26 event. They are really so much fun!

Tables are set up on the outdoor patio at the Loews Hotel. Many attendees bring their dogs—typically including multipack families of Newfoundlands, Golden Retrievers, Corgis, etc. Michelle usually plans a fun (and funny) event for the dogs—a tail-wagging contest, for example.

If anyone would like to take a dog that needs a home, please let us know! We also need a few more silent auction items to add to the nice ones we have. We are very grateful to Michelle for choosing CCAD, with so many rescues on the western shore. Michelle and her husband, Larry, do so much to help the animals.

This is a great opportunity to support CCAD and Michelle, and to have a great time with a CCAD dog or your own!

HAPPY ENDINGS

BABY CAT—now Willow—is doing great. She is a real bundle of energy. She loves her feather toys and can perform magnificent gymnastic feats. My other kitty is slowly warming up to her. She is affectionate to all and fears nothing. She is a wonderful companion. Thank you for all you do for the animals.—Ann Coates

APRIL, JAZZY, & BLUE are all doing great! They are just beautiful and we are so enjoying the "Mom and babies" experience. April is SO protective and generous; she loves sharing her food with the babies, and never eats all her food until they are done. And, oh my, can they talk! We've never had cats that are this vocal. They actually harmonize! Guess which one wants to be a circus cat when she grows up?—Pat & Mike Lubbert

WHY IS BINGO smiling? Well it's Friday night and I can't imagine giving Bingo back. He is a sweet boy. He and Dolce still mix it up, fight over food and bones, but that's probably because they both want to be the boss. I love him dearly; he is so funny rolling on his back with a stick out in the yard. Anyway, he's here to stay! He really is a sweet boy.—Cheri

Cat Tales

HERE ARE THREE of our cats in need of homes. Maybe you would consider opening your heart to one of them!!!

Taylor, a 17-year-old female Himalayan, is very loving and gets along with other cats and dogs, but she really wants a lot of petting and would be happier in a home where she didn't have to share so much. She'd love the opportunity to give you a hug.

Lucky was found by Oyster Cove in 2009. He wandered in the cold and rain, hoping that a family would find him and give him food and lots of love. Lucky is a young adult, male, very, very friendly, and very, very sweet. He will purr in your arms for love and attention. When he was found, Lucky was very hungry and a little thin. However, now that he receives regular meals and good care, he is doing so much better. Lucky would be happiest if he were the only feline in your family, so that he can receive all the love and attention. Human companionship is all he needs. If you are a family that would like to provide the special home he needs, providing "unconditional" love, please let us know.

This gorgeous cat is Priscilla, 5. Contrary to the popular belief that white cats are born deaf, Priscilla is not. She just wants to prove what a sweet, loving family member she could be. She loves meeting new people and being petted. She would be best in a home with no other cats or dogs. She promises that if you take her home, you won't regret it!

DON'T FORGET YOUR RECIPES by August 31 so that our very own cook-book can produce revenues and great cooking.

Email them to us at info@ccadcatanddogrescue.org or mail them to us, and we will turn them into something special.
