WE WELCOME DAN AND DEBBIE VOGELSANG to the board of CCAD. Longtime and loyal volunteers, their positive energy is an asset to any group, and we are grateful to them for being part of ours!

IN RESCUE WE ARE OFTEN ASKED why we "do it." The answer is simple. We do it for the animals.

Animals have no voice in their care or survival, and it is up to caring individuals to step forward to be that voice and to take part in the activities that create a better life for those in need.

Rescue groups rely on volunteers to survive, and the success of any rescue is based on the willingness of lots of people to do even a small amount.

It is a great object lesson to see children willing to help animals in need, and we are fortunate to see that in so many of our endeavors with CCAD, but we could use the involvement of more volunteers of any age.

Below is a listing of some areas in which we could currently use help:

- Bookkeeping
- Writing thank you notes
- Transportation to and from vets
- Staff for the adoption center
- Painters to help paint the center
- Petfinder posting
- Web work
- Taxes
- Dog Fosters
- Home visits for adoptions
- Events staff
- Dog Team coordinator
- Data base work
- Newsletter Editor

Please consider helping for the sake of the animals! We could really use your support.

KITTY ANGELS—In the recent storm event, the cats at the center were very lucky to have special angels caring for them. Dan and Debbie V. came and boarded up windows so there would be no escapes in broken-window situations. Debbie L. and Corrine came in early Saturday to make sure their place was clean and that they had lots of food and water to weather the storm. Kim and Gwen braved the height of the winds and rain Saturday evening to make sure that everyone was doing okay!

Thanks to all of you who earned storm wings! And thank you to all who came and cleaned the center in a quarterly clean on Tuesday before the storm, too!

COMING SOON...!

CCAD—Ready To Set the Table!
Cookbook

CCAD—Ready To Set the Table!, our first-ever cookbook, is in the final production stages.

Thank you to all those who sent in recipes and contributed; more than 500 of your cherished and family-favorite recipes were received.

The cookbook will be available for sale around the end of October, so keep that in mind when you are planning your Christmas shopping lists. The book will cost $20 and will offer a wide variety of appetizers, soups, salads, main dishes, beverages, desserts, and even some special treats for our canine and feline friends! Even better, you'll be supporting our mission of "Working To Provide a Life of Love and Dignity for All Animals!"

The cookbook will be available for purchase at all CCAD events and activities, or give us a call at the center to place your order. As always, we thank you for your support.

Newbies!

SOJ came from Caroline Co. in May. They were fostered by the Lessman Family and came into the Center in August.

HAPPY ENDINGS

IT'S BEEN 3 weeks since Pawl came into our home, so we decided to take a family vote to see if he should stay. I'm happy to report the vote was 3 to 1 in Pawl's favor. As I'm sure you can guess, Peep was the only one who voted nay. I'm sure it will just take time and she will eventually come around. Thanks for rescuing this Big Butterball, twice!—Kelly

A Friend!

CAMRYN RUTH, Centreville, has been collecting donations for CCAD and came to the Center to present us with what she worked hard to earn... $66. She also had a bag full of kitty treats. Camryn met us at the Craft Fair in Centreville, is hoping to help us at some fundraisers, and is interested in fostering a dog.
